Chapter 1 by Rachel Nock

It was a mid-summer evening and I was sitting in my favourite bench and I looked up at the beautiful sky with birds chirping, silent surrounding, it was perfect, warm. But I was startled when I heard a loud pop just a few steps away, when I saw who it was I looked back up at the beautiful sky, I heard a sweet voice say, "Mariel are you ok, 'cause I startled you pretty well." but I just ignored him. After about a minute I noticed I was being picked up by, my best friend Jay. He took me to his house so that I could stay round for a sleep over, and I told him that I had to go, but as usual he ignored me and I ended up having to call my sister I don't see her as a sister she's more like a mum to me. as I was saying I was finished with my call and Jay had grabbed my hand and pulled me towards...
